By a Staff Reporter

BURBANK, Calif. — Actor Ajay Mehta presented donations to the Los Angeles Regional Foodbank

at an event here Nov. 14, according to a press release.

Mehta presented the foodbank with pallets of Fiber One cereal and chewy bars donated by the General Mills Foundation during Celebrity and Media Volunteer Day, which was hosted by actress Jennifer Love Hewitt and the American Women in Radio and Television's Southern California chapter. Mehta stars in Fiber One's commercials now airing nationally.

"We are thrilled about this amazing donation from the General Mills Foundation being offered Saturday at the Season for Sharing event," said AWRT president Laura Behrman. "Their generous gift of food will help make the holidays more plentiful for many families in need."

The event also served as the kickoff event for the foodbank's "Season for Sharing." Organizers hope that the event will raise awareness for the foodbank's need for volunteers and donations.
